[Our special telegrams lack this morning, that fullness, which, we trust, will be hereafter supplied. A "hitch" in the transmission is the explanation.]

THE KUKLUX COMMITTEE.

A SOLITARY NIGGER AND THE "MYTHICAL" FIVE.

THE PRESIDENT AT LONG BRANCH.

GEN. BURNSIDE AT CINCINNATI.

A BLOODY ROW AT LOUISVILLE.

LATEST BY CABLE.

ETC., ETC., ETC.

WASHINGTON.

A COLORED "BROTHER" ON THE KUKLUX, AND A CAUCASIAN DITTO—THE "MYTHICAL" FIVE.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The kuklux examining committee to-day examined several witnesses, among them Ezekiel Harris, a young colored man, who rents and works a piece of land in Chatham county, North Carolina. He testified that just before last Christmas a band of white men visited his neighborhood and took away his own and other negroes' guns; a short time afterward a party of disguised persons, whom he believed to be kuklux, came to his house at night and called on him to open the doors. He dressed, and at once barricaded all means of entrance, except one window, which the kuklux forced open and began to fire through. His wife and six children being with him inside, he returned their fire. The parties shot one of his family in the breast, and another in the eye, and while reloading his rifle, called out loudly for his "mythical" five-shooters, whereupon the kuklux withdrew. He swore he knew of no sufficient reason for this attack, having done nothing to provoke it unless it was to vote the republican ticket. He had concluded not to vote any more.

RECAPITULATION.
Capt. Daniel Bryan, conservative witness, knew of these occurrences only by hearsay but gave the parties high character.

WILLARD WARNER, recently appointed collector of the port of Mobile, received a telegram to-day, stating that at meeting of colored republicans held there, they voted than's unanimously to President Grant and Secretary Boutwell for his appointment. Warner to-day filed his bond, and received his commission. His bondsmen are General Sherman and ex-Senator Cattell, of New Jersey.

ANNUAL REPORTS.
Chiefs of different divisions of the internal revenue office sent their report for the fiscal year, just ended, to the commissioner to-day, showing the entire work of the year to have been completed, and no cases lying over.

SOLICITOR M'MICHAEL has delivered opinions on about four hundred cases since his appointment, many of which were on the solicitor's desk when he entered upon his present official duties. This officer also commences the new fiscal year with a clean desk.

A request has been presented to the internal revenue authorities, from the national asylum for disabled soldiers, at Hampton, Va., asking to be allowed to manufacture cigars without incurring taxes and assessments met by individuals in the transaction of similar manufacturing pursuits. No action, as yet, has been taken. Under existing laws this privilege cannot be granted.

THE WEATHER.
The barometer has varied a little, and risen at Pacific and Rocky mountain stations. A low barometer which was in the north-west, Friday evening, has moved over lake Superior, and eastward, with fresh, south-westerly wind, and light rain on northern lakes, Michigan and Huron. The area high pressure has moved eastward and now extends from Maryland to Massachusetts. The barometer has risen from Missouri to North Carolina and northward, excepting slight fall immediate coast from Maine to Virginia, where it is now probably rising. Rain fell during the night from North Carolina to Pennsylvania and threatening weather has continued during the day and has extended to Massachusetts.

Rain is reported this afternoon from Florida and Georgia, clearing up and clear weather west of Indiana and Michigan.

PROBABILITIES.
It is probable that a low barometer will extend to eastern states by Sunday night; that southwesterly winds will probably continue on the lower lakes and south-easterly winds on the Atlantic coast from Maine to New Jersey. Westerly winds and clear weather are probable for the Ohio and Mississippi.
